The Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) is a federal program that provides reimbursement for nutritious meals and snacks to eligible children and adults who are enrolled in care at participating child care centers, day care homes, and adult day care centers.

Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) - USDA-FNS

The Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) reimburses child care and adult care institutions and family or group day care homes for providing nutritious meals and snacks to the children and elder adults who are enrolled in care at participating child care centers, day care homes, and adult day care centers.

Federal Register :: Child and Adult Care Food Program

This part announces the regulations under which the Secretary of Agriculture will carry out the Child and Adult Care Food Program. These regulations govern the administration and payment of reimbursement for meals and snacks provided to children and adults who are enrolled in care at participating child care centers, day care homes, and adult day care centers. The regulations set forth criteria for participation, eligibility, meal service, payment rates, budget formula, reporting and record keeping, and requirements and sanctions for noncompliance.

PART 226—Child and Adult Care Food Program | USDA-FNS

This part announces the regulations under which the Secretary of Agriculture will carry out the Child and Adult Care Food Program. These regulations govern the administration and payment of reimbursement for meals and snacks provided to children and adults who are enrolled in care at participating child care centers, day care homes, and adult day care centers. The regulations set forth criteria for participation, eligibility, meal service, payment rates, budget formula, reporting and record keeping, and requirements and sanctions for noncompliance.

Child and Adult Care Food Program - ncsl.org

The Child and Adult Care Food Program (CAFCP), created in 1968, serves more than three million children in child care settings each day. CAFCP is among the core federal child nutrition programs that Congress will review in the upcoming Child Nutrition Reauthorization.

Federal Register :: Child and Adult Care Food Program

This part announces the regulations under which the Secretary of Agriculture will carry out the Child and Adult Care Food Program. These regulations govern the administration and payment of reimbursement for meals and snacks provided to children and adults who are enrolled in care at participating child care centers, day care homes, and adult day care centers. The regulations set forth criteria for participation, eligibility, meal service, payment rates, budget formula, reporting and record keeping, and requirements and sanctions for noncompliance.

Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) - Institute of Food Technologists

Health and Nutrition Research for the Child and Adult Care Food Program. The Institute of Food Technologists announces the results of a study that evaluated the nutritional content of meals served to children and adults in the Child and Adult Care Food Program. The study found that the meals provided by the program were nutritionally balanced and met the requirements of the National School Lunch Program.

Fun with Fruits and Vegetables at Family Child Care. This booklet is designed to help Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) providers promote healthy eating habits among children in family child care settings. The resource includes activities, recipes, and tips for incorporating fruits and vegetables into meals and snacks.

Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) | Benefits.gov

The Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) reimburses child and adult care institutions and family or group day care homes for providing nutritious meals and snacks to children and older adults or chronically impaired persons who are enrolled in care at participating child care centers, day care homes, and adult day care centers.

Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) - Food Research

New USDA Rules for Meals and Snacks in the Child and Adult Care Food Program Go into Effect, Promote Healthy Eating Habits. The new rules implement new nutrition standards that include a greater variety of vegetables and fruit, more whole grains, and ...